

The right to due process of law is outlined in the 5th and 14th Amendments of the Constitution of the United States.

Two types of due process of law

procedural due process of law

The government must use fair proceedings.

Substantive due process of law

The laws under which the government acts must be constitutional.

Amendments protecting due process of law

5th Amendment

Prohibits the national government from acting in an unfair or arbitrary manner.

14th Amendment

Prohibits state and local governments from acting in an unfair or arbitrary manner.
