

ARCHAEOLOGISTS

(A)

What is an archaeologist?
A Scientist who studies past cultures by examining fossils and artifacts.

Fossils:
Hair, bones, etc...
(natural)

Artifacts: Tools,
clothes, etc...
(man-made)

(B)

Archaeologists use scientific tests such as carbon dating to analyze fossils and artifacts

(C)

STONEHENGE (In England) is an example of an archaeological site. Stonehenge was begun during the Neolithic Era and completed during the Bronze Age